The A.I. Wall

Artificial Intelligence (A.I.), as the President signed into Executive Order last week, American AI Initiative, is being promoted by the best salesmen in the world. Everywhere we look we see technology, and invasive A.I., taking over our lives. A.I. will soon be having sex with our children, too, if they aren't already, not kidding.

As you may not be able to avoid hearing, President Trump plans on building a massive wall across the USA's southern border from Mexico. Many people love the idea of a wall, many people hate it. I think it's an embarrassment.

After 9/11 I was worried for our country, and about our southern border. "Why weren't we protecting it," I thought, "or even mentioning it?" I remember explaining my worries to people saying, "If someone breaks in your front door, don't you make sure the backdoor is locked, too?"

Nobody paid attention to our border after 9/11 and that lacked rationale. It bothered me. Now, nearly 18 years later, we need a wall? Maybe we do, but I don't like it. Walls work both ways. I believe we will grow to hate the wall.

Besides, we pay a lot of money every year to the military. We see tv commercials all the time about how we have the greatest military in the world. We have the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard, Army Reserves, Border Agents, Texas Rangers, state police, CIA, FBI, on and on and on, they tax the ever living you know what out of us. Why aren't they, and all their "A.I." our wall?

We invade nearly every country in the world but can't protect our border without a wall? (Read More)
